 CLERK
 US BANKRUPTCY COURT
 DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

Subject: Concerns Regarding Excessive Expenses in FTX Bankruptcy Case

Dear Honourable Judge Dorsey,

I hope this letter finds you well. My name is Lidia Favario, and I am one of the many victims of the FTX fraud. I am writing to respectfully bring to your attention some findings from my personal research into the handling of expenses during the FTX bankruptcy, which appear to align with the concerns you raised during the December 12, 2024, hearing.

In that hearing, you highlighted three questionable expenses charged to the estate by the professionals involved, including an $8,251 airline ticket, a $120 hotel room meal, and a $134 Uber ride for a journey that could have been walked. My independent research suggests that these issues are not isolated but part of a broader pattern of excessive and unnecessary spending that contravenes the DOJ's "Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed under 11 U.S.C. § 330 by Attorneys in Larger Chapter 11 Cases." On page 8 of the guidelines, it states:

"Reasonable: Whether the expense is reasonable and necessary. For example, travel should be in coach class. First-class and other above-standard travel or accommodations will normally be objectionable."

For example:

- Luxury Accommodations: In Delaware, Sullivan & Cromwell, Alvarez & Marsal, and John J. Ray III exclusively stay at the historic luxury 5-star Hotel Du Pont. In Washington, professionals stay at other boutique luxury hotels such as The Hay-Adams and The Jefferson (Attachment 1). An Alvarez & Marsal professional even managed to spend $971.74 for one night's stay in a New York hotel (attachment 2).
- Extravagant Nassau Stays: When travelling to Nassau, Bahamas, Alvarez & Marsal professionals stay at the Grand Hyatt, a luxury oceanfront vacation destination, rather than more modest accommodations (Attachment 3).
- Exorbitant Taxi Expenses: In one week alone in November 2022, Kumanan Ramanathan from Alvarez & Marsal spent $1,733 on taxis commuting between home and office. A professional from Alvarez & Marsal charged the estate $151.33 for an Uber ride from Hotel DuPont to the court hearing —a distance that appears to be a five-minute walk (Attachment 4). More egregiously, on December 13, 2023, the estate was charged a total of $2,683.14 for three taxis with the description: "Local Transportation - Transportation Type: Taxi; Starting Point: S&C; End Point: Capitol Hill; Pick Up Time: 08:45; Business Purpose: commute (& wait) to J. Ray's Testimony for J. Ray, A&M + S&C Teams." (attachment 5).
- Business Class Travel: They generally travel by business class on trains and occasionally use business class for flights as well (Attachment 6).

These examples, which are documented in court filings, illustrate a concerning disregard for estate funds. It is important to remember that these funds come at the expense of creditors, many of whom—like myself—have been financially devastated by this fraud.

To make it easier for you to verify these findings, I have compiled detailed evidence in a Google Drive folder, including court filings, and my analysis of the spending patterns:

[https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/13cbzRUBQ-cVkJU2qTGweRY2neeS0IDftK?usp=drive\_link]

Given the Fee Examiner's responsibility to oversee these expenses—and their upcoming fee increase from January 2025—I respectfully request that the Court consider expanding the scope of expense reviews to ensure accountability and compliance with the DOJ guidelines. Holding professionals to reasonable spending standards is essential to maintaining fairness in this case.

Thank you for your attention to this matter and for your ongoing efforts to oversee the responsible administration of the FTX bankruptcy. Please do not hesitate to contact me if further details or clarifications would be helpful.

Sincerely,

Lidia Favario
